

PALO ALTO WOMAN'S CLUB TO HOLD ANNUAL SPRING KITCHEN TOUR

The Palo Alto Woman's Club will hold its annual Spring Kitchen Tour from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. this Saturday, May 15. Five wonderful Palo Alto houses will be featured: Four are remodels of older homes and one is a new home with three fantastic kitchens. This event will feature a Williams-Sonoma Chef's demonstration, a pizza-making demonstration in the outdoor kitchen by the owner's personal chef and homemade cookies and beverages by Woman's Club members. Raffle tickets will be sold at the houses; prizes include such items as overnight stays at five-star hotels. Tickets are $35 on Saturday, May 15, at 125 Southwood Ave. Proceeds of this fundraiser enable the Woman's Club to give financial stipends to local women's and children's nonprofits, as well as to preserve its historic 1916 Clubhouse.

MENLO PARK'S BREAKFAST, BRUNCH AND LUNCH FAVORITE

Opened in 1946, Ann's Coffee Shop is a Menlo Park landmark. In its over 60 years in business, the restaurant has become a local favorite for breakfast, brunch and lunch. Stepping into the cozy diner located at 772 Santa Cruz Avenue is like stepping back in time. First-time customers get a free cup of coffee — a good example of the kind of classic hospitality you just don't see much these days. You can put your elbows on the table and enjoy a satisfying breakfast or sit at the counter and sip hot coffee while reading the paper. Ann's Coffee Shop is famous for its pancakes, made according to a recipe that hasn't changed since 1946. Regulars also love the real milkshakes; homemade pies and cakes; and the daily specials that include traditional dishes like corned beef and cabbage, baked meat loaf and roast turkey with dressing. Ann's Coffee Shop is open for breakfast and lunch from 6:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday through Saturday and, due to popular demand, from 7:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on Sunday. For more information, call 650-322-0043.

BRITISH PUB FARE WITH NORTHERN CALIFORNIA STYLE

You'll find a lot more than spirits and bar food at Martins West, a gastropub located in the 113-year-old Alhambra building at 831 Main Street in Redwood City. In addition to a variety of imported and domestic beers, a thorough wine list and an extensive selection of fine Scotch whiskeys, Martins West serves greenmarket-driven British pub fare with Northern California style. The menu features approachable, farm-fresh pub fare inspired by authentic British dishes, and menu items change frequently depending on what's in season. You'll also discover a warm and comfortable atmosphere that's inviting enough to convince you to stay for another drink after you finish your meal. Whether you stop in for a quick pint or sit down to a

THIS SUNDAY: AVENIDAS LIFETIMES OF ACHIEVEMENT 2010

Join us from 3:30 to 5 p.m. this Sunday, May 16, for a garden reception in honor of six distinguished seniors who have made significant professional and community contributions. Call 650-289-5445 or visit www.avenidas.org for tickets.

Community leader Marge Bruno is well-known for her service in and around Los Altos, where she was twice elected Mayor and served two City Council terms. She has been on the boards of the Los Altos Community Foundation and Pilgrim Haven and was the first woman President of the Los Altos Rotary Club, where, in 1995, she established the Partners-in-Education tutoring program.

Longtime Palo Alto resident, community volunteer, and philanthropist Elizabeth Wolf has focused her most recent efforts on children, education and issues of equality of opportunity. She and her late husband, Hans (also a former Lifetimes honoree), established a small family foundation in 1966 and worked tirelessly on many community projects, including her local church. In addition to providing homes for exchange students at Gunn High School, she also had many international graduate students living in their home for more than 20 years.

In 1979, longtime Hewlett-Packard employee Emery Rogers was invited by the company's founders to create and direct a foundation for the organization. Emery was uniquely qualified for the position, having served on a board that directed research grants to the University of Delaware while he was in Wilmington heading up one of HP's instrument company acquisitions. Rogers has been president of the board at CHC and vice president of the Palo Alto United Way Board, and chaired the boards of the Scientific Apparatus Makers Association, San Jose PBS TV station KTEH, Channing House, Stanford Convalescent Hospital and Castilleja School. A Stanford graduate with an A.B. & Ph.D. in Physics, Rogers also served on a joint Army-Navy science team at the US Naval Research Lab, which came up with a solution to the severe "precipitation static" problem causing aircraft to lose crucial radio contact during storms.

Portola Valley's Gordon Russell was a general partner at venture capital firm Sequoia Capital for over 20 years. Specializing in high technology and health care, he has held senior management positions in the biomedical and health care industries. He is a founder of the Sun Valley Writers Conference and serves as a trustee of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, the Woods Hole Research Center, and Ravenswood Family Health Center in East Palo Alto. He also served as a trustee and chairman of the Palo Alto Medical Foundation and chaired the boards of the Peninsula Community Foundation and Community Impact.

As a team, Fred and Marcia Rehmus' gifts to the community include endowment funding and art gifts to the Rehmus Family Gallery of Native American Art at Cantor Arts Center and endowment of the Frederick P. Rehmus Family Presidential Professorship of Humanities at Stanford. A founding principal of Brownson, Rehmus & Foxworth, Inc., Fred Rehmus has generously shared his knowledge of investment and finance with several nonprofits throughout the years. Both have been involved with Gamble Garden Center, she as a past board president and he as a finance committee member.

relaxing dinner at Martins West, you will be taken care of from the moment you walk through the door. Right now, you'll get $10 off any lunch purchase of $30 or more when you mention the Martins West ad running in The Daily News. ### BUILDING FOR A SUSTAINABLE FUTURE

Buildings in the United States are responsible for a tremendous amount of energy consumption and carbon dioxide emissions. Oftentimes the air inside is much more polluted than the air we breathe outside, meaning buildings also have a huge impact on our health. Thankfully, these negative impacts can be reduced with the utilization of green building practices. CB Builders Inc., a Certified Green Building Professional and member of the U.S. Green Building Council, is committed to staying current with the rapidly changing techniques and growing resources in the world of green building. This knowledge enables owner Chris Brooks and his team to build healthier and more efficient homes to create a sustainable future. In addition to their environmental efforts, the CB Builders Inc. crew strives for professional excellence, which is why they've provided their clients with only the highest quality service and craftsmanship since the company's founding in 1999. If you'd like CB Builders Inc. to help you build toward healthier and sustainable living, call 408-239-4401 or visit www.cb-builders.com.
