

Who You Gonna Call? Avenidas Village Members Know the Answer

“Anytime I have a crisis, I call Avenidas Village,” states Isabel Peterson. “Their help has been invaluable.”

Isabel lives alone in the Midtown neighborhood of Palo Alto. “My closest family members live in Chico, and they are pleased that I have this local support.”

She became a member of Avenidas Village when it first started. “I thought the program was a good idea, it sounded interesting, and I figured it could serve as insurance for any problem that might come up,” she states.

Isabel has found that she also loves all the activities that Avenidas Village offers her--the field trips, the lunches, and the speakers.

She’s benefitted from Avenidas Village’s impressive network of vetted vendors. “I used a financial advisor and it was a very good experience,” she recalls.

“I think overall that the key benefits of my Avenidas Village membership are all the activities and the support in case of emergencies,” she concludes. “Avenidas Village makes things easier for me!”

Isabel stopped by the Village last summer bearing these beautiful roses from her garden.
