Dr. Philip Choe, Associate Director Stanford Geriatric Fellowship Program, “Don’t Go It Alone: Healthy Caregiving, Community and Connection”

Dr. Philip Choe is a board certified geriatrician who completed his training at Rowan University School of Osteopathic Medicine and Stanford University School of Medicine. He currently serves as a geriatrician at the VA Palo Alto Health Care System and as the associate director of the Stanford Geriatric Fellowship Program to train and educate future geriatricians in the Bay Area. His goal is to provide a comprehensive and holistic medical service to the aging population through his training in osteopathy, medical acupuncture, and evidence-based medicine. His academic interest is in curriculum development and quality improvement. In his spare time, he tries to spend as much quality time with his wife and two daughters.
