1-Dec		At the beginning of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol, Ebenezer Scrooge is a cold-hearted miser who despises Christmas. His catchphrase, "Bah, humbug!" is often used to express disgust with many of the modern Christmas traditions.
2-Dec	Vixen and Blitzen and all his reindeer Pullin' on the reins Bells are ringin', children singin' All is merry and bright Hang your stockings and say your prayers 'Cause Santa Claus comes tonight!

3-Dec	Don't you tell a single soul What I'm going to say
7-Dec	All is calm, all is bright	The start of the tradition is unclear, but some believe mistletoe is connected to fertility, while others believe the practice stems from a German myth, which states that when the god of truth and light, Baldur, was killed by an arrow made of mistletoe, his mother used its white berries to bring him back to life. To celebrate, she promised to kiss anyone passing by the sacred plant.
9-Dec	When the snow lay 'round about Deep and crisp and even	Charles Dickens
11-Dec	And since we've no place to go Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow	The tradition came about thanks to a legend that states the generous Turkish bishop St. Nicholas helped a set of three poor sisters avoid a life of indentured servitude by paying for their dowries. For three nights, the bishop threw gold down their chimney, which landed in their stockings hung by their fireplace to dry. Now we carry on the tradition by hanging stockings to fill with gifts and small treats.
14-Dec	Oh, what fun it is to ride In a one horse open sleigh	According to the Guinness Book of World Records, "White Christmas" by Bing Crosby is not only the best-selling Christmas/holiday single in the United States, but also the best-selling single of all time, with estimated sales in excess of 50 million copies worldwide.

16-Dec	Ring-a-ling, (ring-a-ling) hear them ring (ting-a-ling) Soon it will be Christmas day	The first record of candy canes in America goes all the way back to 1847 when a German immigrant used them to decorate his holiday tree, according to the National Confectioners Association. (Prior to that, legend says they were invented in 1670 by a choirmaster in Cologne, Germany.) Nowadays, the iconic Christmas candy is a holiday staple with more than 1.2 billion produced and sold each year.
